JUDGE, PROBATE COURT
LIBERTY COUNTY
P.O. BOX 28
HINESVILLE, GEORGIA 31310

NOTICE

Due to the statewide judicial emergency, effective immediately, the Liberty County Probate Court is only handling emergencies and other urgent matters. These will be addressed by appointment only. During business hours, we will continue to answer routine questions by phone. Our office number is 912-876-3635.

If you are calling about a mental health crisis, Order to Apprehend, please call 912-876-3635.

If you need to file a Petition for Emergency Guardianship of an Adult, or have questions regarding filing emergency pleadings, please call 912-876-3635.

If you are in need of a birth or death certificate, and/or marriage license, please call 912-876-3635 to schedule an appointment. All requests for certified copies of birth certificates and marriage licenses shall be processed via mail or email.

We will not be processing new or renewal Weapons Carry License applications during this judicial emergency. If your license expires during the judicial emergency period, it will remain valid during the judicial emergency, which now expires May 13, 2020 at 11:59 p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the Georgia Supreme Court. All related Georgia Supreme Court Orders can be found at <https://www.gasupreme.us/>.

If the judicial emergency Order is further extended, we will post the new date the emergency period ends. Licensees will have the same amount of time to renew your license that you had remaining at the time the original Order went into effect on March 14, 2020. If your license expired during the judicial emergency period, then you will have thirty (30) days after the date the judicial emergency ends to apply for a renewal license.

This does not affect your right to carry pursuant to the Constitution if you do not have a Georgia Weapons Carry License.

When possible, parties are encouraged to delay any matters that are not urgent. If you do feel it is necessary to file a non-emergency action or motion, please call 912-876-3635.

Thank you for your patience during this difficult time. Again, for any questions or comments please call 912-876-3635.
