On July 10, 2020 Chief Justice Harold D. Melton of the Georgia Supreme Court signed a fourth order, effective on July 12, 2020, extending his original order signed on March 13, 2020 closing the courts in Georgia except for emergency actions or procedures until Tuesday, August 11, 2020, at 11:59 p.m. However, in this order he allowed for individual courts to return to matters that could be handled without jeopardizing the health or welfare of court personnel, the litigants, or the public.

We have established a safety protocol in order to resume some court activities. We have addressed dispossessories and garnishments filed before March 13th first. The remainder of the general civil calendar will resume on a case-by-case basis after considering the particular circumstances of the case.

We have resumed some in person court activities by appointment only. Please call our office so we can determine whether your matter can be resolved over the telephone or whether you need to set up an appointment.

We ask that you remain patient with us as we try and get back to a new normal.

We will post any updates and other information as it becomes available on our web page at www.libertycountyga.com.

Thank you for your patience,

Melinda Anderson
Chief Magistrate
